United Nations Day 2021

- United Nations Day is an annual commemorative day, reflecting the official creation of the United Nations on 24 October 1945.
- In 1947, the United Nations General Assembly declared 24 October, the anniversary of the Charter of the United Nations, as which "shall be devoted to making known to the people of the world the aims and achievements of the United Nations and to gaining their support for" its work.
- In 1971, the United Nations General Assembly adopted a further resolution (United Nations Resolution 2782) declaring that United Nations Day shall be an international observance or international holiday and recommended that it should be observed as a public holiday by United Nations member states.
- The name was coined by the President of the United States Franklin D. Roosevelt and was first used in the Declaration of the United Nations on January 1, 1942, during the Second World War. The UN had 51 members at the time of its establishment. It is currently made up of 193 Member States.

Sudan's Military Dissolves Civilian Rule

- Sudan's military has dissolved civilian rule, arrested political leaders, and declared a state of emergency. Gen Abdel Fattah Burhan, who had been heading a joint council with civilian leaders, blamed political infighting. Protesters have taken to the streets of the capital, Khartoum, and there are reports of gunfire.

Military and civilian leaders have been at odds since long-time ruler Omar al-Bashir was overthrown two years ago and a transitional government was set up.

- Although the country remains in a deep economic crisis, there had been more international support - and a military takeover will put that hugely at risk.
- Gen Burhan has been heading the Sovereign Council, part of a power-sharing arrangement between military and civilian leaders. In a televised address, he said infighting between politicians, ambition and incitement to violence had forced him to act to protect the safety of the nation and to rectify the revolution's course. He said Sudan was still committed to "international accords" and the transition to civilian rule, with elections planned for July 2023.
