The largest port in Europe in terms of cargo—over 12 million TEUs in 2015—doesn't even crack the top-10 worldwide in terms of TEU size, instead coming in at number 11. Continued expansion has seen the Holland-based port grow to over 38 square miles with continued capacity growth in the works. One of the deepest ports in Europe, Rotterdam has continued to keep up with growing ship sizes and its increased ability to transfer containers which makes it a key launching point for products in and out of Europe.

National Science Day

28th February

National Science Day is celebrated to mark the discovery of the Raman Effect by Indian physicist Sir C.V. Raman

Raman Effect is a change of wavelength exhibited by some of the radiation scattered in a medium. The effect is specific to the molecules which cause it, and so can be used in spectroscopic analysis.

The basic objective of observation of National Science Day is to spread the message of importance of science and its application among the people.
