- India's Ministry of Defence has decided against inking the Rs 700-crore repeat order it had approved in late 2020 for 72,400 'Patrol' Sig Sauer assault rifles from the US for its military, due to diverse 'snags' which had surfaced with earlier imports of an equal number of similar weapon systems a year before.

Taiwan scraps deal to buy US anti-submarine helicopters

- Taiwan has opted out of purchasing anti-submarine helicopters from the United States because they are too expensive.
