Former Japan PM Shinzo Abe Passes Away

- Former Japanese Prime Minister Shinzo Abe was shot while giving a campaign speech in western Japan. The former Prime Minister was shot in the back and bleeding on-site when he was shifted to a hospital.
- Japanese Prime Minister Fumio Kishida said the shooting of his predecessor Shinzo Abe is unforgivable. He condemned the shooting as a barbaric and malicious act and said, that it cannot be tolerated. Mr Kishida was speaking to reporters at his official residence in Tokyo after rushing back to the capital from Yamagata, where he had been campaigning.
- Japanese Official media reports that two shots were heard. NHK reports that Police have arrested a man, named Yamagami Tetsuya for attempted murder. It was also reported that a gun seized at the scene appeared to be handmade. The 41-year-old suspect lives in Nara city where the shooting took place.

10th World Peace Forum

- India's Ambassador to China Pradeep Kumar Rawat said that BRICS countries, can make a greater contribution to the world, but not necessarily in conflict with international groups, adding that India participates in all the different international events as India can make greater contribution by actively cooperating with more countries.
- Speaking at a panel discussion "BRICS Cooperation: Opportunities and Challenges" as part of the 10th World Peace Forum in Beijing organized by Tsinghua University, Rawat tried to dispel the notion that BRICS is trying to replace other institutions and organizations.

- “There are also comparisons between BRICS and other international organizations.
- It seems that some people are saying that BRICS is trying to replace other institutions and organizations, but I don't think that's the case. Our aim is to provide more positive ideas and more initiatives for global development,” he said.
