US, India Will Work To Advance Free And Open Indo-Pacific: White House

- The US will join hands with India to advance a free and open Indo-Pacific and continue to work together to deliver opportunity, security, freedom and dignity to its people, the White House has said, underlining that the two nations have ever-growing people-to-people connections.
- White House Press Secretary Karin Jean-Pierre said that India and the United States are partners in many important areas, including defence, vaccines, climate and tech.

Why is the Indo-Pacific Significant?

- The Indo-Pacific region has more than half of the world's population with 2 billion people living under democratic rule.
- This region generates a third of the world's economic output, more than any other region of the World.
- Three of the most important allies of the United States namely Japan, South Korea and Australia are located here.

What are the Future Prospects for India with Respect to Indo-Pacific?

- Naval forces and diplomacy are two vital tools for furthering India's stature in the affairs of the Indo-Pacific. Both tools allow India to influence events far away from our borders.
- New Delhi is required to leverage the already strong relations in trade and commerce to formulate multilateral diplomacy, blue water policy and deeper economic integration through Free Trade Agreements (FTAs). All such pieces are required to complete the open, integrated and balanced picture of Indo-Pacific.

- If we could achieve an open, integrated and balanced Indo-Pacific, our power projection and influence in the region will increase tremendously.
- India's vision of Security and Growth for All in the Region (SAGAR), upon which schemes like Sagarmala are founded, needs to be leveraged for growing international confidence over India's role in Indo-Pacific.
