Indian Tri-services Contingent Leaves For French Bastille Day Parade

- 14 July is celebrated as the Fête Nationale Française, or the National Day in France. It is also known as the Bastille Day as this day is the anniversary of Storming of the Bastille in 1789 during the French Revolution. This year, the PM of India, Narendra Modi has been invited as the Guest of Honour at the Bastille Day Parade in France.
- The parade will witness a 269- member tri-services contingent of the Indian Armed Forces marching alongside their French counterparts. The contingent has left for France.
- The association of the Indian and the French Armies dates back to World War 1. Over 1.3 million Indian soldiers participated in the war and almost 74,000 of them fought in the muddy trenches to never return again, while another 67,000 were wounded. Indian troops valiantly fought on French soil also.
- Later World War 2 witnessed a whopping 2.5 million Indian soldiers making significant contribution in various theatres of the war from Asia to Africa and Europe. This also included the battlefields of France.

French President's Diplomatic Advisor Holds Talks With NSA Doval

- Emmanuel Bonne, Diplomatic Advisor to French President Emmanuel Macron, held in-depth talks with NSA Ajit Doval to prepare for Prime Minister Narendra Modi's visit to France scheduled to take place next week.
- Ahead of PM Modi's visit to France on its National Day, French Ambassador to India Emmanuel Lenain expressed the desire to have Indian troops participate in the parade and Indian Rafales in the sky to commemorate the 25th anniversary of the strategic partnership between the two nations.
- Speaking about the key takeaways from PM Modi's upcoming visit to France, he said, "There will be a lot. Each time, there are important meetings at that level. There will be some new momentum for cooperation. That being the 25th anniversary this year, we are going to draft a roadmap to open for new cooperation in the future, especially in the field of technology, the fight against climate change, global issues, and people-to-people exchanges..there would be a lot of news."

EAM Jaishankar Attends Reception Onboard INS Trishul
