INS Sumedha Makes Goodwill Visit To Namibia

- Indian Naval Ship INS Sumedha is on a goodwill visit to Namibia's Walvis Bay from November 10-13, the Indian Navy said.
- In a post on social media platform X, the Indian Navy said that during the visit, the cross-deck visits were undertaken.
- The reception on board INS Sumedha reflected true friendship and growing ties. The presence of the Walvis Bay Mayor, dignitaries, senior officers of the Namibian Navy, Heads of Diplomatic Mission, guests, the Indian community, and media made the occasion special.
- Moreover, a session on Yoga and Ayurveda was also held in the port city of Walvis Bay, and the Namibian Navy personnel also joined the team of INS Sumedha and together performed Yoga at the Indian Naval Ship.
- "A session on Ayurveda held in the port city of Walvis Bay brings together teachers of traditional systems of wellbeing. Yoga unites! Namibian Navy personnel join the Team INS Sumedha and together perform Yoga at the Indian Naval Ship currently on a goodwill visit to Walvis Bay, Namibia," the High Commission of India in Namibia posted on X.
- During the port call of the Indian Naval vessel, a medical camp was also held in which the elderly persons received attention and care in Walvis Bay.

AMC Officer Lt Col Sanjeev Malik Creates History

- Army Medical Corps officer Lt Col Sanjeev Malik has made history by winning Five Gold Medals in 42nd World Medicine and Health Games in Colombia. He is presently posted in the President's Bodyguards, Rashtrapati Bhawan.
- His victories in the 800m, 1500m, 3000m, 5000m, and cross-country events make him the only athlete to achieve this feat in 2023 and one of a select few since the Games began in 1978.
- The World Medicine and Health Games, often regarded as the Olympic Games for Health Professionals, has evolved into the most prestigious global sporting event within the medical community. With a legacy dating back to 1978, the Games annually attract over 2,500 participants from more than 50 nations.

China And Pakistan Navies Hold Drills In Arabian Sea

- The Chinese and Pakistani navies are holding week-long drills in the Arabian Sea during which the two all-weather allies will also conduct joint maritime patrols for the first time, a media report said.
- The Chinese and Pakistani navies at a naval base in Karachi on Saturday kicked off the 'Sea Guardians-3' exercise in the waters and airspace of the northern Arabian Sea in drills that include anti-submarine operations, Dawn News reported on the exercises which will end on Friday.
- This is the third time for China and Pakistan to hold such an exercise, aiming to consolidate the all-weather strategic partnership and traditional friendship between the two countries, and strengthen realistic combat training of the two militaries.

Myanmar: Thousands Flee To India As Insurgents Open Attack

- Thousands of people from Myanmar crossed into India after some ethnic minority insurgent groups attacked security posts in Myanmar on Monday leading to a fresh fight erupting on two new fronts, Reuters reported.
- This comes as Myanmar's military junta is facing its biggest test since taking power in a 2021 coup after three ethnic minority forces launched a coordinated offensive in late October, capturing some towns and military posts.
- Last week, the military-installed president said that Myanmar was at risk of "breaking apart" because of an ineffective response to the rebellion. The military generals say that they are fighting "terrorists".
- One of the three allied insurgent groups, the Arakan Army (AA), which is fighting for greater autonomy in Rakhine State in western Myanmar, seized posts in the Rathedaung and Minbya areas.
- Notably, about 5,000 people from Myanmar crossed into India's Mizoram state to seek shelter from the fighting, Reuters reported citing James Lalrinchhana, the Deputy Commissioner of a district on the Myanmar border.

Another High-Profile Indian Enemy Killed In Pakistan

- Unidentified gunmen have shot and killed Maulana Raheem Ullah Tariq, a close aide of Jaish-e-Muhammed (JeM) chief Maulana Masood Azhar, in Karachi's

Orangi Town. The Karachi police have labeled it as a "targeted killing" and an "act of terrorism".

- This incident marks the third high-profile assassination of terrorists focused on India this month. Previously, Akram Ghazi, a commander of Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT), was gunned down in Pakistan's Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province, and Khwaja Shahid, one of the masterminds behind the 2018 Sunjuwan terror attack in Jammu and Kashmir, was abducted and found beheaded near the Line of Control in Pakistan-occupied Kashmir.
- Authorities are currently investigating the involvement of local terrorists and infighting among JeM members in Tariq's killing. He was shot multiple times by assailants who appeared to be familiar with the area. Tariq was on his way to address a gathering against India and Kashmir when the attack took place.
