China To Hold 2nd Indian Ocean Region Forum

- China this week will hold the second conference of its Indian Ocean Region Forum, an initiative to bring together several countries in the region in an attempt to solidify its influence in the strategic waters adjacent to India's backyard.
- Last year the China International Development Cooperation Agency, an organisation part of the ruling Communist Party of China's Leadership Group, held a meeting of the China-Indian Ocean Region Forum on Development Cooperation in Kunming, the capital of Yunnan province in southwest China.
- The CIDCA claimed 19 countries including Indonesia, Pakistan, Myanmar, Sri Lanka, Bangladesh, Maldives, Nepal, Afghanistan, Iran, Oman, South Africa, Kenya, Mozambique, Tanzania, Seychelles, Madagascar, Mauritius, Djibouti, Australia took part in the conference.
- Australia and Maldives subsequently denied their participation. India was not invited to the meeting. The Chinese forum is apparently aimed at countering India's strong influence in the Indian Ocean region where India-backed organisations like the IORA which has a membership of 23 countries, have taken strong roots.
- China is a dialogue partner in the IORA formed in 1997. Besides IORA, Prime Minister Narendra Modi proposed "Security and Growth for All in the Region"

(SAGAR) in 2015 for active cooperation among the littoral countries of the Indian Ocean region.

- The Indian Navy-backed 'Indian Ocean Naval Symposium' (IONS) seeks to increase maritime cooperation among navies of the region.
