'Thalapathy' Vijay Quits Cinema For Politics, Announces Political Party Tamizhaga Vetri Kazhagam

Why In The News?

- The Much-Awaited Announcement From Actor Vijay Is Finally Here. The Tamil Star Has Announced The Formation Of His Political Party, Tamizhaga Vetri Kazhagam Aka TVK (Tamil Nadu's Victory Party), And Shared A Statement On X (Formerly Twitter).
- In The Long Official Statement, Vijay Said That Though His Fan Club Vijay Makkal Iyakkam Has Been Doing Social Work For The Past Many Years, There Is A Need For Political Power To Do The Same In A Full-Fledged Manner.

Highlights Of The Official Statement

தேவைப்படுகிறது.

He Spoke About Dysfunctional Administration, Corrupt Political Culture,
Divisive Politics. People In Tamil Nadu, Are Longing For A Change In A Political Scenario And Want A Selfless, Honest, Secular And Talented Party To Bring About A Change. He Desires To Help The People Of Tamil Nadu & Community.

What Do We Know?

- Vijay Announced That He Will Be Contesting In The 2026 State Legislative Assembly Elections And Will Pave The Way For The 'Desired Political Transformation Sought By The People Of Tamil Nadu.' The Tamil Star Also Confirmed That He Will Be Pursuing Politics Full Time And Will Quit Cinema
   After He Wraps Up His Current Commitment.
- He Is Currently Acting In Venkat Prabhu's Film Greatest Of All Time, Which Will Become His Last Film. Meanwhile, He Promised That His Party Members Will Continue Their Social Work In The Grass-root Level.

