Iconic Figures Support For Palestine

- Mahatma Gandhi : As an anti-colonial leader and a lawyer, Gandhi asserted that "Palestine belongs to the Arabs," along with his well-known sympathy towards Jewish people. "No exception can possibly be taken to the natural desire of the Jews to found a home in Palestine. But they must wait for its fulfilment till Arab opinion is ripe for it," he said in 1938. Gandhi also said that "Palestine belongs to the Arabs in the same sense that England belongs to the English and France to the French".

- Muhammad Ali Jinnah : Muhammad Ali Jinnah, the founder Pakistan and president of the All-India Muslim League, brought increased focus to the Palestinian issue on the world stage. Jinnah objected to the establishment of a Jewish national state on Palestinian territory. He consistently supported the Arab cause and maintained friendly relations with Palestinian leaders throughout his political career. He once stated, “It is not shame. It is monstrous and criminal. Why doesn’t President Truman take one million Jews into the USA? The reason is that the Jews do not want a National Home in Palestine. What they want is to reconquer Palestine, which they lost 2000 years ago, with the help of British bayonets and American money”.

- Malcolm X : “Did the Zionists have the legal or moral right to invade Arab Palestine, uproot its Arab citizens from their homes and seize all Arab property for themselves just based on the “religious” claim that their forefathers lived there thousands of years ago?” he said, standing firm against occupiers. Then he answered: “Only a thousand years ago, the Moors lived in Spain. Would this give the Moors of today the legal and moral right to invade the Iberian Peninsula, drive out its Spanish citizens, and then set up a new Moroccan nation... where Spain used to be, as the European zionists have done to our Arab brothers and sisters in Palestine?”

- James Baldwin : A well-known American writer, James Baldwin, said in 1979 that Israel wasn't created for the salvation of Jews but as a strategic move for Western interests. Baldwin highlighted the enduring cost borne by Palestinians due to colonial policies and Europe's Christian conscience. "The state of Israel was not created for the salvation of the Jews; it was created for the salvation of the Western interests," he said. Baldwin then added, "The Palestinians have been paying for the British colonial policy of 'divide and rule' and for Europe's guilty Christian conscience for more than thirty years."
